The Ceremony

We are delighted to announce that Riverside House is now licensed to hold civil ceremonies and partnerships.

Alternatively, enjoy a luxury outdoor blessing beneath a naked tipi in our idyllic upstream island setting overlooking the rolling Lancashire countryside.

For those seeking something a little more traditional, the historic St Marys Church on the edge of the estate can add a touch of medieval grandeur to any ceremony.

Riverside House

Riverside House is licensed to host civil ceremonies and partnerships within its fabulous conservatory and offers the perfect ceremony location no matter the weather in the idyllic surroundings of this Gisburne Estate valley.

*License and registrar
from £500*

Upstream Woodland

A short walk from Riverside House, our upstream woodland area provides the picture-perfect backdrop for a bespoke outdoor blessing alternative to a traditional wedding ceremony.

Naked tipi, furniture and celebrant from £2,100

St Mary's Church

Built in 1135, the medieval St Marys Church in the centre of Gisburn Village is a short 5-minute drive from Gisburne Park. The church's friendly vicar, choir, organist and bell ringers make for a perfect traditional ceremony.

*Organist and church fees
from £699*

Accommodation

Gisburne Park boasts stylish accommodation for over 220 guests across Ribblesdale Park in our historic houses, luxury lodges and cosy cottages each with their own outdoor hottub.

As a fun alternative for your guests, the estate also offers the perfect location for a luxurious glamping village for a truly memorable night among the estate's flora and fauna.

Our events team would be delighted to provide you with further information about availability and pricing.
